DETAILED ACTION

1. Amendment filed on 3/29/05 has been received.

Election/Restrictions

2. Claim 20 is withdrawn from further consideration pursuant to 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a nonelected group, there being no allowable generic or linking claim. Applicant timely traversed the restriction (election) requirement in the reply filed on 10/1/04.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

3. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

4. Claims 1-9,21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

5. Claim 1 recites the limitation "the damper element" in line 5 of the claim. There is insufficient antecedent basis for this limitation in the claim.

6. It is unclear if the applicant is claiming the combination of a machine tool and the isolator or just the isolator with regard to claims 21-24. The examiner is assuming for purposes of examination that the subcombination of the isolator is that which is intended.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

7. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

8. Claims 1-8 10-13 18-19 and 21-24 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Harrison (U. S. Patent no. 4,690,388).

See figure 1 flexible diaphragm 12, toroid elastomeric damping element 25 between plates 15,26, load button 11,17,22, rigid base plate 10, ring/cradle 24, load interface 22

Regarding parallel to the base, the diaphragm is disposed parallel to the base where it is attached to the load button

Regarding high and low frequencies, the air spring/diaphragm will optimally damp a different frequency than the elastomeric member and therefore one will damp a lower frequency and one will damp a higher frequency.

9. Claims 1, 4-9 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Yanagisawa et al (U. S. Patent no. 4, 126,303).

See figure 2 flexible diaphragm 308, floating body 302, load button 303, rigid base plate 306, cradle 401.

10. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
